

THE STORM

The wind howls as it passes by (line 1)
 Raindrops are flung against the window (line 2)
 So hard that they shudder and trickle down (line 3)
 The trees sway dangerously (line 4)
 Early daffodils lie limp and lifeless on the dark earth (line 5)
 The door slams with the force of the violent wind (line 6)
 The rain lashes down making puddles on the ground (line 7)
 There is no more sun – only a chilly breeze rising in the air (line 8)
 - maybe spring is over? (line 9)

By Jill McConkey (aged 10)

52. The poet uses the word flung in the second line.
 Which word means the same or almost the same as flung ?
 Tick the best answer.

- Flew
- Thrown
- Raining
- Windy

53. What closes because of the wind ? (_____)

54. Which type of flowers are mentioned in the poem ?
 (_____)

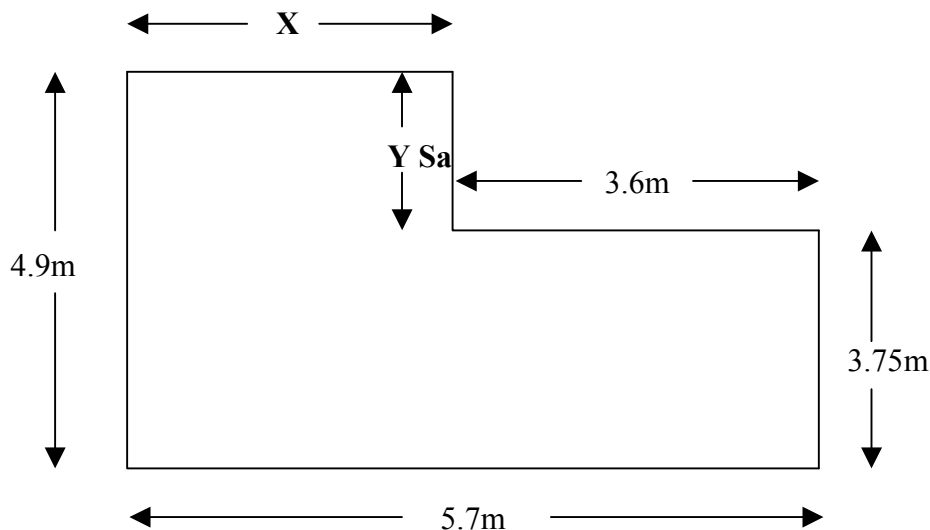

55. Circle the adjective in this sentence from the poem.

The door slams with the force of the violent wind

56. Why does the poet end the poem with a “?”
 Tick the best answer.

- She is asking the teacher a question
- She is asking the reader a question
- She is asking her mother a question
- She is asking the headmaster a question

Look at this diagram that is not drawn to scale.

8. What is the length at X ? (_____ m)

9. What is the length at Y ? (_____ m)

10. Mark walks around the perimeter of this shape. How far does he walk ?
(_____ m)

What is the cost of the following items?

11. 1kgs of sweets at 75p for 200g ? (£ _____)

12. 6.5 litres of petrol at 90p per litre ? (£ _____)

13. $\frac{3}{4}$ metre of material at £16.00 per metre ? (£ _____)

14. Eggs can be packed into boxes that hold six eggs each.
How many boxes are needed to pack 58 eggs ?
(_____ boxes)

Do not write in this column

--	--